KOPP, QUENTIN, FRIENDS OF KOPP COMMITTEE, SI-79/57, (1980)

84210 (currently 84211) - One (1) count
84300 - One (1) count
$2,000 fine

San Francisco Supervisor Quentin L. Kopp accepted an illegal cash contribution consisting of laundered one hundred dollar bills and failed to take steps to report the true source of the money.

The action stems from an occurrence on April 3, 1978, when Kopp contacted San Francisco developer Warren Simmons and solicited a contribution for his Friends of Kopp Committee. Later that day, an unidentified woman delivered an envelope to Kopp containing ten one hundred dollar bills. There was no information inside or outside of the envelope concerning the source of the $1,000 in cash. Kopp contacted Simmons again and was informed by Simmons that the contribution was from San Francisco investment banker Phillip Greer. The money was deposited in the Kopp campaign committee account after first being converted into a cashier's check.

Later in April 1978, Kopp obtained a confirmation letter from Greer and the Kopp committee campaign report for the period of January 1 through June 30, 1978, and disclosed Greer as the contributor of the $1,000.

In late May 1978, Kopp was informed that it was illegal at that time to accept cash contributions in amounts of $50 or more. Kopp contacted Greer and was informed by Greer that the money was not his. Still, Greer agreed to accept return of the contribution he had not made, and the Kopp committee sent him a check for $1,000 on December 13, 1978.

After being told by Greer that the contribution was not from him, Kopp took no steps to determine the true source of the contribution. The Kopp committee's campaign report for the period of July 1 through December 31, 1978, disclosed the return of the $1,000 to Greer. There was no mention of the name, Warren Simmons.
